

11TH - 13TH
MARCH 2020

In Solidarity with BU UCU's Four Fights

DECOMMODIFY EDUCATION FESTIVAL

FLIRT CAFE
21
THE TRIANGLE
BOURNEMOUTH
BH2 5RG

Programme

MARCH 11TH

14:30-15:30 Why we say decommodify!
-Sadie Fulton & Marian Mayer

15:30-16:00 Democratic Experiments
in Education
-Ian Gwinn

16:00-17:00 Your Rights as Students
-Phil Wilkinson

The Decommodify Education Festival is a series of talks and activities in solidarity with the UCU Four Fights campaign. We know that better conditions for teachers fosters better education for students. We host this festival to make these links and to highlight our dedication to co-creating a more equitable and sustainable world with our students.

MARCH 12TH

14:30-15:00 Globalisation, Precarious
Workers & Trade Unions
-Rosie Read

15:00-15:30 Voice for the Voiceless:
Brief history of community radio
-Salvo Scifo

15:30-16:00 1968 Student Movements
in Popular Culture
-Austin Fisher

16:00-17:00 Learning through Making:
student video on Strike Action
-WeZ Nolan

MARCH 13TH

14:30-15:30 Infographics for Activism
-Anna Feigenbaum

15:30-16:00 Security & Protest Policing
-Dan Weissmann

16:00-17:00 UK Comics & British Politics
-Billy Proctor

17:00 End of Pickets Happy Hour!

All events are free and open to staff, students and members of the public

